Testimonials

They have a great environment, buying cookies made me feel like a kid again. They have friendly employees and my order was perfect. Will definitely come back!

The menu is just showing the most common options, they love hearing suggestions for something different. Challenge their creativity!

Probably the best cookies i've ever had, and cookies are my guilty pleasure.

My son is really particular about his cookies; he just likes store-bought. But one visit to Ajar, and he won't go anywhere else. We're customers for life!

We are a cookie bakery where we bake lots of cookies to make anyone happy. We have cookies of all types and different shapes for either a special occasion or to please the kids. Don't miss out on our holiday specials, we always have something for kids of all ages.

We appreciate our customers' needs, and we also sell cookie jars. For those who have big orders we offer the option to buy a cookie jar at a discounted price.

Feel free to ask us about custom cookies or a type of cookie we don't currently have listed. In our well-stocked kitchen, we always keep extra ingredients for those cookies that may be less popular.

All about our Ingredients

We use all natural ingredients for our cookies, nothing artificial. We get all our ingredients from farmers here in Quebec, so you know you are getting fresh and local products. We also accommodate those who require gluten-free or low-sugar diet.

We also offer dairy free cookies. For those with any allergies such as nuts or peanuts we take special care of our ingredients to make sure they don't mix at all.
